To promote and preserve a happy and healthy congregation, we, the Horizon Unitarian Universalist Church Board, covenant to:

- Keep the best interests of the congregation at heart, listen to friends and members, and maintain open and transparent communication.
- Treat one another, members, staff, and visitors with mutual respect by offering patience and understanding.
- Respect each other's boundaries, including our time and confidentiality.
- Provide space to communicate and listen to understand each other, particularly when the conversation is difficult.
- Encourage questions and discussions.
- May freely disagree but, after arriving at a decision, support the decisions of the full board and speak with one voice to the congregation and individuals.
- Ask for help when we need it.
- Exert our best efforts to prepare, attend, and participate in board meetings.
- Make an active effort to be engaged in congregational life.
- Carry out our responsibilities with integrity.
